Day 02

Amman City Tour – Desert Castles (Kharraneh, Amra & Azraq Castle) – Amman

After breakfast, tour the city of Amman starting with the downtown area, the oldest part of Amman, which is crowned by the Citadel, which offers a panoramic view of the whole city. Here one can also see the ancient ruins of the Temple of Hercules that dates back to (AD 161 – 180), the Byzantine Church, and the fascinating Archaeological Museum which houses an excellent collection of the antiquities of Jordan. At the foot of the Citadel is the 2 nd century AD Roman Theater, still used today for cultural events. Drive east of Amman towards the Desert Castles. Visit the fortress -l ike Qasr el-Kharaneh & the charming bathhouse complex of Qasr Amra. Then, continue to visit the marvelous castle of Azraq. Back to Amman.

Overnight in Amman

Day 03 Amman – Jerash – Ajloun – Dead Sea

Breakfast at the hotel, drive Transfer to Jerash, the best-preserved Roman city of the Decapolis. Entering the city through the monumental South Gate, one comes upon the lovely Oval Plaza, the Temple of Zeus, and the South Theater, which seats more than 3 , 000 spectators. Walking through the Colonnad ed Street, one can see the Market Place, the Omayyad residential quarter, a 4 th century AD cathedral, St. Theodore' s Church, the Nymphaeum, and the North Theater.

Continue to visit Ajloun. Ajloun is a hilly town in the north of Jordan. It is noted for its impressive ruins of a 12 th-century castle, known now as Ajloun Castle that was built by one of Saladin's generals in 1184 AD to control the iron mines of Ajloun . Ajloun Castle dominated the three main routes leading to the Jordan Valley and protected the trade and commercial routes between Jordan and Syria; it became an important link in the defensive chain against the Crusaders, who, unsuccessfully spent decades trying to capture the castle and the nearby village .

Continue to the Dead Sea (the lowest point on the earth) to enjoy swimming and floating on its salty water

Overnight in Dead Sea.

Day 04 Dead Sea – Madaba – Mt. Nebo – Kerak – Petra

After breakfast, drive to the rose -red city of Petra along the Kings' Highway. En route stop at Mount Nebo, which dates back to the time of the Prophet Moses, around the 12 th century BC. Visit the remains of the mosaic floors with stunning designs that feature hunting and pastoral scenes, found in the small church, built by the early Christians in the 4 th century AD.

Continue to Madaba, home of the most famous Byzantine mosaics. Visit the greatest and most significant of all the city' s treasures, the wonderful mosaic map of ancient Palestine, which is located on the floor of the Greek Orthodox Church of St. George. Continue towards Kerak, where you will visit its imposing Crusader castle. Drive to Petra.

Overnight in Petra

Day 05 Petra Visit

Breakfast at the hotel, full day to visit the most famous and gorgeous site in Jordan. Petra is the world wonder and undoubtedly Jordan's most valuable treasure and greatest tourist attraction, and it is visited by tourists from all over the world. It is not known precisely when Petra was built, but the city began to prosper as the capital o f the Nabataean Empire from the 1 st century BC, which grew r ich through trade in frankincense, myrrh, and spices. It was carved out of the solid Rock before about 2000 y ears ago by the Arab Nabateans. Start the tour on foot pass ing by the fascinating narrow gorge (the Siq), which is about one kilometer long and eighty meters high. Once of a sudden you will be facing Petra' s most famous monument the Treasury (el -Khazneh), continue on foot towards the Monastery (ed- Deir) passing by the Theater, Qasr el-bint, small houses and curved gates.

Overnight in Petra

Day 06 Petra – Wadi Rum – Aqaba

Breakfast at the hotel, drive to Wadi Rum (Valley of the Moon), lies in the far south of

Jordan, set on a high plateau at the western edge of the Arabian desert. Gargantuan rock formations, rippled sand dunes, and clear night skies create an almost fairy -tale setting across an unpopulated area. This is truly the " reddest" part of Jordan, colored by iron oxide, and by far the most dramatic in terms of landscape . Jeep tour for 2 hours through Wadi Rum colored sands by Bedouin four -wheel drive vehicles.

Continue to Aqaba. Aqaba is a fun place. It is a microcosm of all the good things Jordan has to offer, including a fascinating history with some outstanding sites, excellent hotels and activities, superb visitor facilities, good shopping, and welcoming, friendly people, but perhaps Aqaba's greatest asset is the Red Sea itself. Here you can experience some of the best snorkeling in the world. The temperate climate and gentle water currents have created a perfect environment for the growth of corals and a teeming plethora of marine li fe.

Overnight in Aqaba.

Day 07 Aqaba –Amman

Breakfast at the hotel, free time for leisure on the beach. Afternoon drive back toward Amman. Overnight in Amman

Day 08 Amman – Departure
